2. Zoning up-date-- election vote on the Turbine language was 180 NO 134 YES total voters 330. Discussion as to what is next- Township Attorney Gordon Bloem explained that to return it to the Planning Commission to redo could take up to 100 days, with the work sessions, public hearings, submitting to County for review and township adoption. Then it would be open to another challenge. Planning Commission could recommend adopting the County language, or do nothing and see what Apex comes in with. After comments from the group gathered.

Moved by Burgess to return it to the Planning Commission, supported by Moore.

Vote 5-0 passed

3. 2% request we talked last month about using the cemetery roads to apply. Methner stated that she had talked to John Mogg he was to get with Bob Moore. Have you two talked? Moore said he had, but he would get back with him again. The deadline to apply is September 29, but would like to do so as soon as possible.
